Character

Plenty of dried fig, apricot and raisins, with a further hint of mango and orange - this spicy, incredibly harmonious sweet wine more than lives up to its name. With a wonderful sweetness on the tongue, the fruit notes are complemented on the palate with aromas of biscuit, nutmeg and caramel, a very soft and full structure, and a long, sustained finish.

Producer

Dourthe Frères

The long-established, noble House of Dourthe is one of the most famous in France. Located in Bordeaux since 1840, it is now the owner of several châteaux and a reliable, innovative wine producer in the region that sets standards in wine production. This pioneering spirit runs through the history of the establishment. Only the best is good enough for the ambitious wine producer to achieve its goals: producing the ideal wine from the finest grapes from the most privileged Bordeaux vineyards.
