Character

A wonderfully deep red Rioja, tending to purple, with an intense nose of ripe dark berries such as blackberries, cassis and blueberries, complemented by aromas of plums and toast. Very fresh and aromatic on the palate with a full-bodied and balanced structure and a lengthy and persistent finish.

Producer

Contino

The Bodega Viñedos del Contino estate lies in a bend of the Ebro River below Laguardia, in the Rioja Alavesa region. The unique alluvial terroir with a high proportion of lime and gravel lends great subtlety to the wines. Since 1973, Bodega Viñedos del Contino has been managed along the lines of a château. Using the latest methods, only the best, handpicked grapes from old vines are crafted into fruity, full-bodied Riojas. Thanks to the perfect combination of soil, continental climate and refined harvesting techniques, the Contino brand sets the standards for full-flavoured, elegant wines in the best Rioja tradition - both within and beyond Spain's borders.
