Character

This is an enchanting white wine with a yellow gleam and a characteristic full flavour. It has powerful aromas of quince, pear and exotic fruit, along with a touch of orange and grapefruit. On the palate are also peppery notes and the wine reveals its incredible softness and fullness, with a pleasing freshness and harmonious structure, rounded off by an enjoyable finish.

Producer

Belle Vallée in Partnerschaft mit
Jean-René Germanier

Valais, the cradle of Swiss viticulture, impresses with its terroir and unique sun-drenched climate. The vines flourish in this perfect position on the terraces. For Belle Vallée, renowned winegrower Jean-René Germanier only uses grape varieties that prosper here. The experienced specialist with strong roots in the region knows the characteristics of each variety. He is committed to the terroir and refines the indigenous grapes into unique wines full of character.
