Character

Powerful notes of ripe wild berries dominate the bouquet of this garnet-red, fruity and well-balanced wine, with in addition a peppery dimension and a hint of vegetal notes. Appealing tannins and a soft, full body enchant the palate, where a touch of liquorice joins the berry and stone fruit flavours.

Producer

Balteo di Orione

The creators of the Balteo di Orione are well aware of the special features of their winegrowing region: Umbria with its pristine nature is one of the best-kept secrets in Italy. Sangiovese, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon flourish gloriously here, and the producers of Balteo di Orione know which of their hillside plots provide the best conditions for an optimum ripening of the three grape varieties. Thanks to their great wealth of experience they have an enormous intuition for the perfect assemblage of grape varieties, which makes the Balteo di Orione a first-class pleasure.
