Character

A fine, garnet-red Ripasso, well balanced and long lasting, that presents a powerful bouquet of plum, blackberry, prunes and figs, alongside light peppery and smoky notes. On the palate it is fresh, aromatic and harmonious, attractively full-bodied and mellow. The berry and dried fruit notes are evident again here, as are the spicy and roasted aromas.

Producer

Cantina Valpantena

The Cantina Sociale della Valpantena lies in the heart of Valpantena, northwest of Verona. The cooperative, founded in 1958, mainly grows the indigenous varieties of Corvina and Rondinella here in the valley with verified designation of origin in the Verona hills. Commitment and professional care are part of all production phases, whereby tradition and technical innovation become one. The excellent quality of the wines proves that the grapes and olives of the 300 member farms of the Cantina Sociale Valpantena are optimally processed.
