

Belle Vallée, 2022

Heida AOC Valais

Country of origin
Switzerland

Grapes
Heida (Païen)

Serving temperature
9 - 12°C

Allergen notice
Contains sulphites

Alcohol content
13.5%

Character

Apricots, peaches and exotic fruit, together with fine honey and mineral notes, are a delight in this deep yellow wine, which is incredibly harmonious and offers plenty of character. On the palate the aromas are supported by a gentle liveliness and fine initial sweetness, not to mention a very soft and full-bodied structure, complemented by a sustained finish.

Wine type

Sweeter wines

Balanced wines

Full-bodied wines

Producer

Belle Vallée in Partnerschaft mit
Jean-René Germanier

Valais, the cradle of Swiss viticulture, impresses with its terroir and unique sun-drenched climate. The vines flourish in this perfect position on the terraces. For Belle Vallée, renowned winegrower Jean-René Germanier only uses grape varieties that prosper here. The experienced specialist with strong roots in the region knows the characteristics of each variety. He is committed to the terroir and refines the indigenous grapes into unique wines full of character.

