

Baroncelli Selezione D'Italia, 2023

Nero d'Avola Sicilia DOC

Country of origin
Italy

Grapes
Nero d'Avola

Serving temperature
16 - 18°C

Allergen notice
Contains sulphites

Alcohol content
15%

Character

A garnet-red wine with slightly purple reflections and a bouquet of blackberry, redcurrants and warm vanilla notes, together with a hint of cocoa and chocolate. On the palate it is smooth with pleasing tannins and a full and harmonious structure, together with a lengthy and persistent finish.

Wine type

Balanced wines

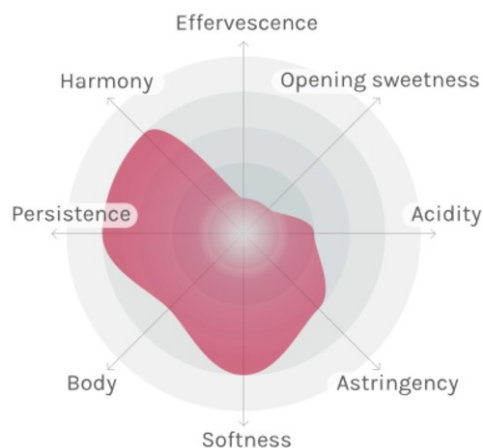

Lingering wines

Producer

Baroncelli

Baroncelli Selezione D'Italia embodies authentic wine craftsmanship from the finest wine regions of southern Italy - and with the "Selezione Speciale" line, it extends even further. Whether for everyday enjoyment or special occasions, our wines provide the perfect accompaniment. Single-varietal and meticulously crafted, they combine traditional winemaking expertise with cutting-edge technology to ensure consistent quality and full, rich flavor.

Foodpairing

Grilled or fried beef