Character

A powerful, well-balanced, ruby-red wine with an intense bouquet displaying wonderful plum and sour cherry aromas, with spicy peppery, vanilla and toasted notes. Very harmonious, full and mellow in structure, on the palate there are velvety tannins, full fruit and appealing roasted notes, rounded off by a wonderfully lengthy finish.

Producer

Kaiken

The name Kaiken dates back to the Patagonian wild goose, which was called Kaiken by the native American Mapuche tribe. As dynamic, wild and free as their name-giver, the exclusive wines of the Mendoza-based establishment are by nature imbued with an honest character, a big personality, elegance and expression. Aurelio Montes, a pioneer of carefully prepared wines in Argentina, received a series of prestigious awards for his wines as well as his lifetime achievement. Together with his son Aurelio junior, he presses top quality wines from vines more than 100 years old: Kaiken has been receiving highest ratings since the very first vintage.
