Character

A very dark, harmonious red wine with a pronounced and complex bouquet of damson, plum, cherry and ripe dark berries. These aromas are also very evident on the palate, where they are further enhanced by a fine and enchanting initial sweetness, a pleasing freshness and a very full and mellow body, followed by an enduring finish.

Producer

Belle Vallée in Partnerschaft mit
Jean-René Germanier

Valais, the cradle of Swiss viticulture, impresses with its terroir and unique sun-drenched climate. The vines flourish in this perfect position on the terraces. For Belle Vallée, renowned winegrower Jean-René Germanier only uses grape varieties that prosper here. The experienced specialist with strong roots in the region knows the characteristics of each variety. He is committed to the terroir and refines the indigenous grapes into unique wines full of character.
