Producer

Château Reverdi

In the dreamy hamlet of Donissan northeast of Lustrac-Médoc, the Thomas winegrowing family cultivates enthralling wines with a great deal of commitment and expertise. Château Reverdi not only impresses with a magnificent castle facade, but also with inspiring results from the vineyard and cellar. Thanks to its favourable geographical location, subtle wines, which have become a real insider's tip thanks to their optimal price-performance ratio and are celebrated by the international trade press, are produced here.
